JAIL PHYSICIAN'S REPORT. to the Chairman and Members of the Honorable Shelby County Court: GENTLEMEN-I herewith submit my second quarterly report as health officer of Shelby county for the quarter beginning April 1 and ending June 30, 1884.

The health of the county during the time this report embodies has been as a general thing good. Dysentery prevailed to some extent in several localities in the country, also in the city, during the latter part of May and fl st of June, the cause, in country, also in the city, during the latter part of May and fi st of June, the cause, in my opinion, bei g the very wet and unseasonable weather we at that time had. On April 4th, Charles Marshall, from St. Louis, was admitted into the Marine Hospital. The next day his disease was found to be confluent smallpox, and he was at once moved to the county pesthouse, where he died a few days later. On April 8th, Charles Russell was received into the Marine Hospital suffering with smallpox. He was at once sent to the pesthouse, and the bedding and clothes used by him were put out on the hospital grounds to sun and air, from where they were stolen a few hours afterward. On May 20th Charles Ewell, who lived in a small shanty a few hundred yards east of the Marine Hospital, took the disease. The next day Delia Hendricks, ten years old, living in the same house, also developed smallpox. The house and contents were four other cases in this family, namely: Mrs. Hendricks, Bahama Stevens, Tersey Stephen and Gallia Hendricks. All of these cases were very mild and recovered. It is my opinion that all of these six last cases had their origin in the bedding stolen from the hospital. The expenses for medicine, disinfectants, etc., for the jail for the quarter were $38.45. The health of the prisoners confined in the jail has

The health of the prisoners confined in the jail has been good, while the county convicts have suffered considerably with dysentery and diarrhea, due, I think, to the bad water they often are compelled to drink while at work on the public roads. I find the main building at the pesthouse very much out of repair, and should be repaired at once to prevent further decay. All of which is very respectfully submitted.
